PROFILE

Aurélia has over 20 years' experience in the auction industry. After graduating from King's College London with BA Hons, she started her career in Business Development and Client Services at Christie's and Sotheby's Paris. She went on to obtain her Graduate Gemmologist degree from the Gemological Institute of America (GIA). Relocating from Paris to London, Aurélia joined the Jewellery department at Bonhams, dealing with client valuations and auction preparations.

EXPERIENCE

Aurélia has a Bachelor of Arts degree from King's College London and a Baccalaureate in Economics and Literature. She speaks English, French being her native language, and some Spanish. Aurelia has also had experience of working with specialist lenders Borro and working for SYMEV (French Association of Auctioneers) in Paris where she was Head of Communications.

ABOUT

In her spare time, Aurélia writes feature length screenplays and children books. Being able to value clients' jewellery is what she loves to do and she has been privileged to handle some unique pieces.

SPOT-LIGHT

Aurélia's favourite piece valued was an Art Déco pigeon blood ruby and diamond three-stone ring by Cartier.

PROFILE

Jenny has been working in the Silver and Jewellery industry for over 35 years. She is a graduate of Reading University, where she gained a BA Hons in English literature. She joined Bonham's auctioneers in Knightsbridge as a post-graduate in the silver, jewellery, clocks and watches departments, specialising in silver and jewellery. Jenny soon rose to the position of deputy head of the department.

EXPERIENCE

Her career has seen her run Bonham's highly successful Gentlemen's sales. Jenny worked with the John Lewis Partnership for 25 years, supplying them with antique jewellery for their retail sales. She also enjoyed working with Bloomingdales in the United States for many years, supplying cufflinks and gentlemen's accessories. Both these roles involved training their staff.

Furthermore, she worked with the Buckingham Palace team and supplied their store, lectured extensively in the UK (including lectures to NAFAS and the National Association of Jewellers) and in the States on her specialist areas. Jenny has also co-curated a cufflink exhibition with The Goldsmiths Company. She is highly experienced in insurance and probate work and continues alongside doing valuations, supplying antiques, particularly wine related items, to the Rothschild Waddesdon Trust and National Trust.

ABOUT

Jenny is very sporty and loves the outdoors. In her spare time, you're likely to find her out and about, walking her dog, playing tennis, cycling, or skiing down a mountain.

SPOT-LIGHT

Jenny's favourite things to value are quirky or unusual antique pieces, both silver and jewellery. She also loves wonderful enamel work be it Fabergé, Scandinavian enamel or French guilloché enamelling.
